List of issues prior to submission of the fourth periodic report of Belgium, due in 2017***

At its thirty-eighth session (A/62/44, paras. 23 and 24), the Committee against Torture established an optional procedure which consists in the preparation and adoption of a list of issues to be transmitted to the State party concerned prior to the submission of its periodic report. The replies of the State party to this list of issues will constitute its report under article 19 of the Convention.

Specific information on the implementation of articles 1 to 16 of the Convention, including with regard to the Committee's previous

Articles 1 and 4

1. Further to the recommendations made by the Committee in its previous concluding observations (para. 8), please provide information on the steps taken to amend article 417 bis of the Criminal Code so that its legal definition of torture incorporates all the elements contained in article 1 of the Convention.
2. Please explain if, and eventually how, the rights contained in the Convention have been invoked in national courts, either as grounds for a case or as interpretative guidance for legal norms. Please cite examples, if any, of cases in which the provisions of the Convention have been invoked before and by the courts, and to what effect.
3. Please provide examples of judgements that can be considered relevant to the implementation of the provisions of article 4, and penalties that, in practice, take into account the grave nature of torture. Please also provide detailed information on the number and nature of the cases in which those legal provisions have been applied and the outcome of such cases, in particular, the penalties imposed upon conviction and the reasons for any acquittal.

* Adopted by the Committee at its fifty-fourth session (20 April–15 May 2015).

4. The European Agency for Fundamental Rights released a report detailing the experiences and perceptions of anti-Semitism in European Union member States. Of those polled in Belgium, 77 per cent responded that they considered anti-Semitism to be either “a very big problem” or “a fairly big problem”. Please provide detailed information on the measures taken by the State party to combat anti-Semitism, including budgetary allocations, judiciary and police training, public outreach campaigns and legislative efforts.

5. Please provide detailed and disaggregated data regarding the number of complaints, investigations, prosecutions and sentences for hate crimes over the last five years. More specifically, the data should be disaggregated by crime charged for, age of alleged perpetrator, target category, alleged perpetrator category, sex, region, religion and year.

Article 2<sup>2</sup>

6. Further to the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para. 9), please provide information on the steps taken to expedite the establishment of a national human rights institution in accordance with the Principles relating to the status of national institutions for the promotion and protection of human rights (the Paris Principles).<sup>3</sup> Please also provide information on the measures taken to actively involve civil society in this process (see A/HRC/18/3, para. 100.9).

7. Please provide updated information on the measures taken by the State Party to ensure that all the provisions of the Convention have been incorporated into Belgian law. More specifically, please elaborate on efforts made: to allow the Convention to be invoked in the domestic courts; to give prominence to the Convention; and to raise awareness of the provisions of the Convention, not only in the legal and judicial system, but also among the public at large.

8. Further to the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para. 11) and the State Party’s follow-up thereto (CAT/C/BEL/CO/3/Add.1), please inform the Committee of any additional steps that ensure that all persons held in custody are provided with all the fundamental legal safeguards under the Convention from the very outset of their deprivation of liberty. More specifically, please elaborate on the measures taken with regard to the right to be informed in an appropriate language of the reasons for their detention; the right to have prompt access to a lawyer and to consult him or her immediately following their detention; the right to contact family members or other persons of their choice; and the right to have an independent medical examination performed without delay by a doctor of their choice.

9. In addition, further to the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para. 12) and the State Party’s follow-up thereto, please provide information on the appropriate measures taken to establish a standardized, computerized and centralized official register in which arrests are immediately and scrupulously recorded.

<sup>2</sup> The issues raised under article 2 could also be addressed under other articles of the Convention, including article 16. Paragraph 3 of the Committee’s general comment No. 2 (2007) on the implementation of article 2 by States parties reads: “The obligation to prevent torture in article 2 is wide-ranging. The obligations to prevent torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment (hereinafter ‘ill-treatment’) under article 16, paragraph 1, are indivisible, interdependent and interrelated. The obligation to prevent ill-treatment in practice overlaps with and is largely congruent with the obligation to prevent torture. ... In practice, the definitional threshold between ill-treatment and torture is often not clear.” See also chapter V of the same general comment.

<sup>3</sup> See also A/HRC/WG.6/11/BEL/3, para. 5; A/HRC/18/3, paras. 9, 100.9 and 102.6; E/C.12/BEL/CO/4, para. 8.
